Download.Q: MVC 4 Controller actions as a plugin in JQuery Dialog I have a MVC 4 application that is almost ready for release. It's been quite a journey. I'm now trying to wrap it all up into a sweet little popup for the user. The entire application is in the ~/Views/Shared folder. I have two controllers: "Features" "Settings" Both have a "Index" action that shows the same view. All the Views are in the ~/Views/XXXX folder. In the popup, I have a link in the footer that should trigger an action in the "Features" controller. I've got that working: `$(function() { $('#dialog-feature').dialog({ autoOpen: false, modal: true, width: 400,`
